Merchants brought ginger to Ancient Greece and the Roman Empire, keeping the origin of the spice a secret. Over time, ginger became available worldwide. Now, we invite you to enjoy a spicy cocktail with citrus notes and a hint of lemongrass.

A still life composition featuring a glass decanter with a wooden stopper, a red liquid, and pomegranates. The decanter has a long, slender neck and a bulbous body. The wooden stopper is dark and has a textured surface. The red liquid is vibrant and fills the bottom of the decanter. To the right of the decanter, there are several pomegranates, some whole and some cut open to reveal the seeds. The background is dark, and the lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures and colors of the objects.
